

Ellos Ellard Lodzeni

Biography

Ellos is a health rights, social justice and governance advocate as well as a patient for patient safety champion with an enormous passion on health matters. He is the patron and founder trustee of Patient and Community Welfare Foundation of Malawi, the only cross disease patient movement in Malawi which articulates and amplifies the patient voice and drives the crusade for patient centred health care in Malawi.

Ellos holds a Master of Arts in Development from the University of East Anglia, UK.

He has over 30 years public sector work experience. He currently works as the full time executive secretary in the office of the Ombudsman where he continues to advance the protection and promotion of respect to human rights.

Ellos is an excellent achiever and coordinates very well with health institutions both public and civil society. Doing this he has broken the silence on hepatitis in Malawi. Now, the Malawi Ministry of Health has recognised and prioritizing hepatitis.
