

Leave no-one behind

Patient access to Biotherapeutics in Latin America

MULTI-STAKEHOLDER SEMINAR – PRELIMINARY AGENDA

Moderator: Migdalia Denis, IAPO – co-moderator: Patricia Gaillard Olokose
9:00	Registration
9:15	Welcome – Migdalia Denis, IAPO
9:30	Panel 1: Working together towards patient-centred universal health coverage Invited panellists include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Dr. Edgar Castañeda – Director of Office of High Commissioner for Human Rights – Antonia Luque from Asociacion Venezolana para la Hemofilia - AVH Questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – What do we need to consider to guarantee the implementation of UHC when we involve patients in decision making? – What are the obstacles in access to healthcare in the region with respect to the right to health, health coverage expenditures and access to high quality services? – To what extent could different actors in the social sector and health sector can be accountable? – What is the role of multilateral bodies and patient organisations in ensuring transparency and the right to health?
11:00	Coffee break
11:30	Panel 2: Guaranteeing security and power of choice of patients when accessing biotherapeutics Invited panellists include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Luis Villalba, Director, FIFARMA – Ricardo Garcia, Director, ClapBio – Angela Chaves – Colombian Federation of Rare Diseases Questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – How can different stakeholders work together to ensure access to Biotherapeutics? – How can the success of a pharmacovigilance system be ensured? – How can patients make an informed decision when accepting biotherapeutics? – How can patient organisations participate in decision-making and how could this improved? – What recommendations do you have for secure access to biotherapeutics, including transparency, regulatory processes and patient participation in decision-making?
13:00	Lunch