

AGENDA: Multi-stakeholder seminar: Increasing the patient voice in drug regulatory authorities – Saturday 23 August 2014, 14:00 – 18:30

Chair: Eva Maria Ruiz de Castilla, IAPO
14:00	Registration
14:30	Welcome address from Alianza Latina and IAPO Jolanta Bilinska, IAPO Carolina Cohen, Alianza Latina
14:45	Panel 1: Aligning patient needs with drug regulatory authority (DRA) priorities Invited panellists include: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Diana Carmen de Oliveira, National Health Surveillance Agency (ANVISA), Brazil 2. Tiago Farina Matos, Instituto Oncoguia, Brazil 3. Nathalia Molleis Miziara, University of Sao Paolo 4. Dr. Luis Villalba, Latin American Federation of Pharmaceutical Industries (FIFARMA) Questions considered will include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What is the role of a DRA in Latin America? • What does patient and wider stakeholder engagement look like in DRA's? • What are the examples of effective engagement? • Which strategies have ensured this?
16:00	Coffee break
16:30	Panel 2: Barriers to universal health coverage Invited panellists include: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Jose Luis Castro, Pan American Health Organization (PAHO) /World Health Organization (WHO) 2. Mariana Faria, The South American Institute of Government in Health (ISAGS) 3. Cesar Garrido, National Centre for Hemophilia, Venezuela 4. Aline Silveira Silva, Ministry of Health, Brazil Questions considered will include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How can stakeholders work together to ensure access to quality healthcare? • What are the barriers to accessing healthcare? • How can regulatory processes support UHC? • Who makes the decisions on who accesses what? • What effect do processes such as biosimilars regulation, health technology assessments and pharmacovigilance have on access to healthcare?
18:30	Close of seminar
18:30 – 20:30	Reception