

Ya-Hsin Wang

Biography

Ya-Hsin Wang a graduate of Taipei Medical University in nutrition and health sciences is the Secretary General of Psoriasis Association Taiwan and the Executive Director of Taiwan Alliance of Patients' Organizations. She has been dietician for many years before. 22 years ago, was diagnosed with psoriasis which came with a lot of pain. However, this patient journey also let her have deep sympathy for other suffering patient.

Ya Hsin has management experience of non-profit organizations and volunteers of over 10 years. Since 2017, she is serving as a committee member in the Taiwan national health insurance committee and as a representative of medical service payment in PBRS, ministry of health and welfare in government. As patient representative, she strives to ensure that the core view of patient-centered is implemented into the real world and sincerely hopes Patient-centered can come true through our efforts.

Experience:

1. Member of national health insurance committee, ministry of health and welfare.
2. National health insurance committee representative in Medical Service Payment of Pharmaceutical Benefit and Reimbursement Scheme Joint committee (PBRS).
3. Secretary General of Psoriasis Association Taiwan
4. Executive director, Taiwan Alliance of Patient's Organizations.
5. Member of HTAi (HTA international) interest Group on patient and citizen involvement